

Global Eco Asia-Pacific Tourism Conference

Global Eco Secretariat | globaleco.com.au | 25-27 October 2010, Noosa, Queensland

Global ecotourism identities converge in Noosa

The Global Eco Asia-Pacific Tourism Conference is bringing top-shelf talent from across the globe to Noosa in October. View the keynote program or register for Global Eco.

Jenna Gardner

Discover the insider's guide to highly successful marketing, promotion and sales services of the travel and luxury market while safeguarding the people, environments and cultures that make destinations unique. Jena Gardner, founder of the JG Black Book of Travel, is an entrepreneur, marketing expert and travel industry veteran.

Jamie Sweeting

Responsible for establishing long-term environmental strategy for Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd., Jamie Sweeting provides an understanding of climate change, destination stewardship, current and future environmental regulations as well as how to ensure responsible corporate environmental performance.

Register For Global Eco

