

Call for Papers

Ecotourism Australia's annual premier conference, Global Eco Asia-Pacific Tourism Conference brings together leading players from across the globe and is a venue for operators, policy makers, planners, conservation interests and researchers to discuss and debate emerging issues and to ultimately develop a more sustainable tourism industry.

You are invited to offer a paper for presentation on Day 2 of the Global Eco Conference, Tuesday 26 October 2010.

Deadline for the call for papers is COB 30 April 2010.

Call for Papers

Day 2 - Theme Stream Workshops

A variety of Theme Stream Workshops feature on Day Two of the Conference, designed around Marketing 'Experience', Sustainability and Climate Change, Indigenous Participation in Tourism, Tourism in Protected Areas, Developing a Green Destination, Strategic Partnerships Delivering Sustainable Tourism and Interpretation Enhancing Experiential Tourism.

Interactive Panel Sessions enable delegates to actively interact with speakers and delegates.

More details about Theme Stream Topics

Registration Opening Soon!

